

NAME _____

1. Base your answer to question on the passage below and on your knowledge of social studies .

... The Congress of the United States notwithstanding, and the Supreme Court of the United States notwithstanding, with all deference and respect, I differ with them all, and know that I am right and that they are wrong. The Constitution of the United States as it is protects me. If I could get a practical application of the Constitution it would protect me and all women in the enjoyment of perfect equality of rights everywhere under the shadow of the American flag ....

- Susan B. Anthony, Speech to the Senate

Judiciary Committee, January 23, 1880

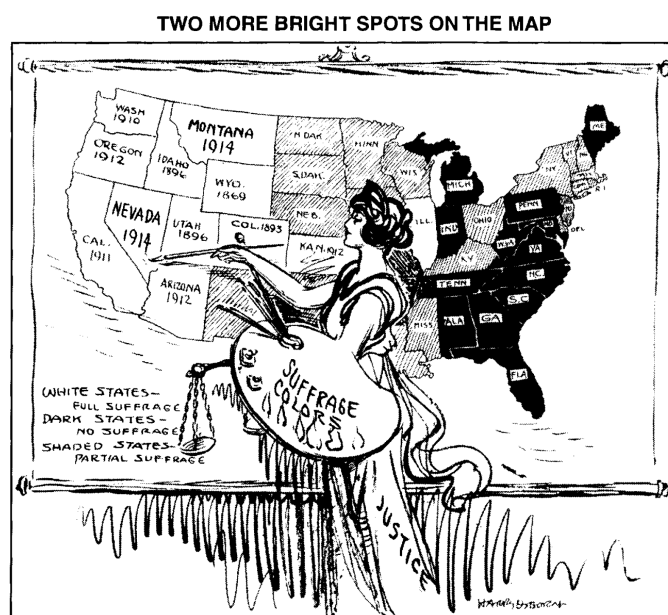

The basic problem identified in this speech was addressed in 1920 by

- A) a constitutional amendment granting suffrage to women
  - B) an executive order allowing women to serve in the military
  - C) a Supreme Court decision granting women additional privacy rights
  - D) a law allowing women to petition the government
2. The women's rights movement in the early 20th century focused its efforts primarily on securing
- A) a cabinet position for a woman
  - B) reform of prisons
  - C) civil rights for all minorities
  - D) suffrage for women
3. What was the main goal of the Seneca Falls Convention (1848)?
- A) to obtain equal rights for women
  - B) to make the public aware of environmental problems
  - C) to correct the abuses of big business
  - D) to organize the first labor union in the United States

4. A study of the women's movement in the United States would show that

- A) the National Government granted rights to women long before state governments did
- B) the gains made by women usually took considerable periods of time
- C) women received voting rights before African-American males did
- D) wartime employment slowed progress toward gender equality

5. Base your answer to question on the cartoon below and on your knowledge of social studies.

Source: Harry Osborn, Maryland Suffrage News, November 14, 1914 (adapted)

Information in the cartoon most clearly supports the conclusion that by 1914

- A) states along the East Coast had granted full voting rights to women
- B) women could vote only in state elections
- C) most states had approved at least some voting rights for women
- D) complete national suffrage for women had been achieved