

NAME _____

- I. _____
- A. Sea power is the key to national greatness.
 - B. United States missionaries spread Christian principles.
 - C. The Anglo-Saxon civilization is the best in the world.
 - D. Sugar plantations in Hawaii were developed by Americans.

1. Which heading best completes the partial outline above?
 - A) Reasons to Declare War on Spain
 - B) Justification for American Imperialism
 - C) Theodore Roosevelt's Political Platform
 - D) Yellow Journalism in Newspapers
2. Between the 1890s and the start of World War I, the United States expanded its access to overseas markets and raw materials through the policy of
 - A) containment B) imperialism
 - C) isolationism D) neutrality
3. Which argument was used to support United States acquisition of overseas possessions in the late 1800's?
 - A) The United States needed to obtain raw materials and new markets.
 - B) The spread of Marxist ideas had to be stopped because they threatened world peace.
 - C) The United States should be the first world power to build a colonial empire.
 - D) The doctrine of Manifest Destiny had become obsolete.

4. In the late 1800's, which reason led the United States to give greater attention to the world beyond its borders?
 - A) fear of revolution in Latin America
 - B) fear of Russian expansion in Alaska
 - C) interest in finding places to settle surplus population
 - D) interest in obtaining markets for surplus goods
5. Which heading best completes the partial outline below?
 - I. _____ 1 Desire for new markets
 - 2 Creation of a modern navy
 - 3 Belief in Anglo-Saxon superiority
 - A) Consequences of World War I
 - B) Results of the Gentlemen's Agreement
 - C) Events Leading to Neutrality
 - D) Factors Supporting United States Imperialism